Congratulations

Congratulations to Taylor Johnston who recently attended an American Clogging All Star rehearsal in Georgia with 72 other dancers. They will represent clogging in the Alamo Bowl in San Antonio, TX on Saturday, December 28.

American Clogging All Stars is open to any competitive clogger from across the US. The dancers combine as one high-energy percussive dance group to perform in large professional settings.

If you are interested in becoming a member of the All Star Team, there is an application and review process. For more information, check out https://www.americascloggingallstars.com/take_part/

If you have any questions, please let me know ☺
