“Family Clogging News”

Note from Priscilla (Mary Hubbard’s daughter): “My mother will turn 100 on September 30th. She was placed on hospice care April 1st. Her dementia has gotten worse. She can no longer walk, which is so sad when I think of how she loved clogging. Until recently, it was difficult to see her in person, but now the restrictions are less strict and I can see her in her room. Thank you for thinking of her. So many memories of the cloggers. Hope you are doing well.”

Please keep Mary in your thoughts and prayers.
