Clogging "Family" News

Congratulations to Samantha and Danny Regan on the birth of their beautiful baby boy. Julian Daniel Reagan was born on August 7th at 7:01 am, 19.5 inches long and weighed 8 pounds and 15 ounces. Sam and Danny want to thank all their family and friends for the support they received over the last nine months ☺

The Spellmans are moving to New Jersey at the end of the month. We will all miss them but they are focusing on saying "see you again" and not "goodbye". They will remain members of Hill Country Cloggers and hopefully will be able to make a few practices from time to time. AND....they have already located a clogging group near their new home!!! Best of luck to a wonderful family ☺

George is home from the hospital and he wants to thank everyone for the texts, emails, phone calls and cards. He was overwhelmed with all the love from our clogging family. Unfortunately he has developed more clots but we are hopeful the new blood thinner he is on will help dissolve the clots. Please keep your prayers coming ☺
